

CORBY HALL HAS EASY TIME WITH HIGH; WINS 6-1

Errors and Inability to Hit With Men on Bases Costs High Lads Game—Jones Allows Three Hits.

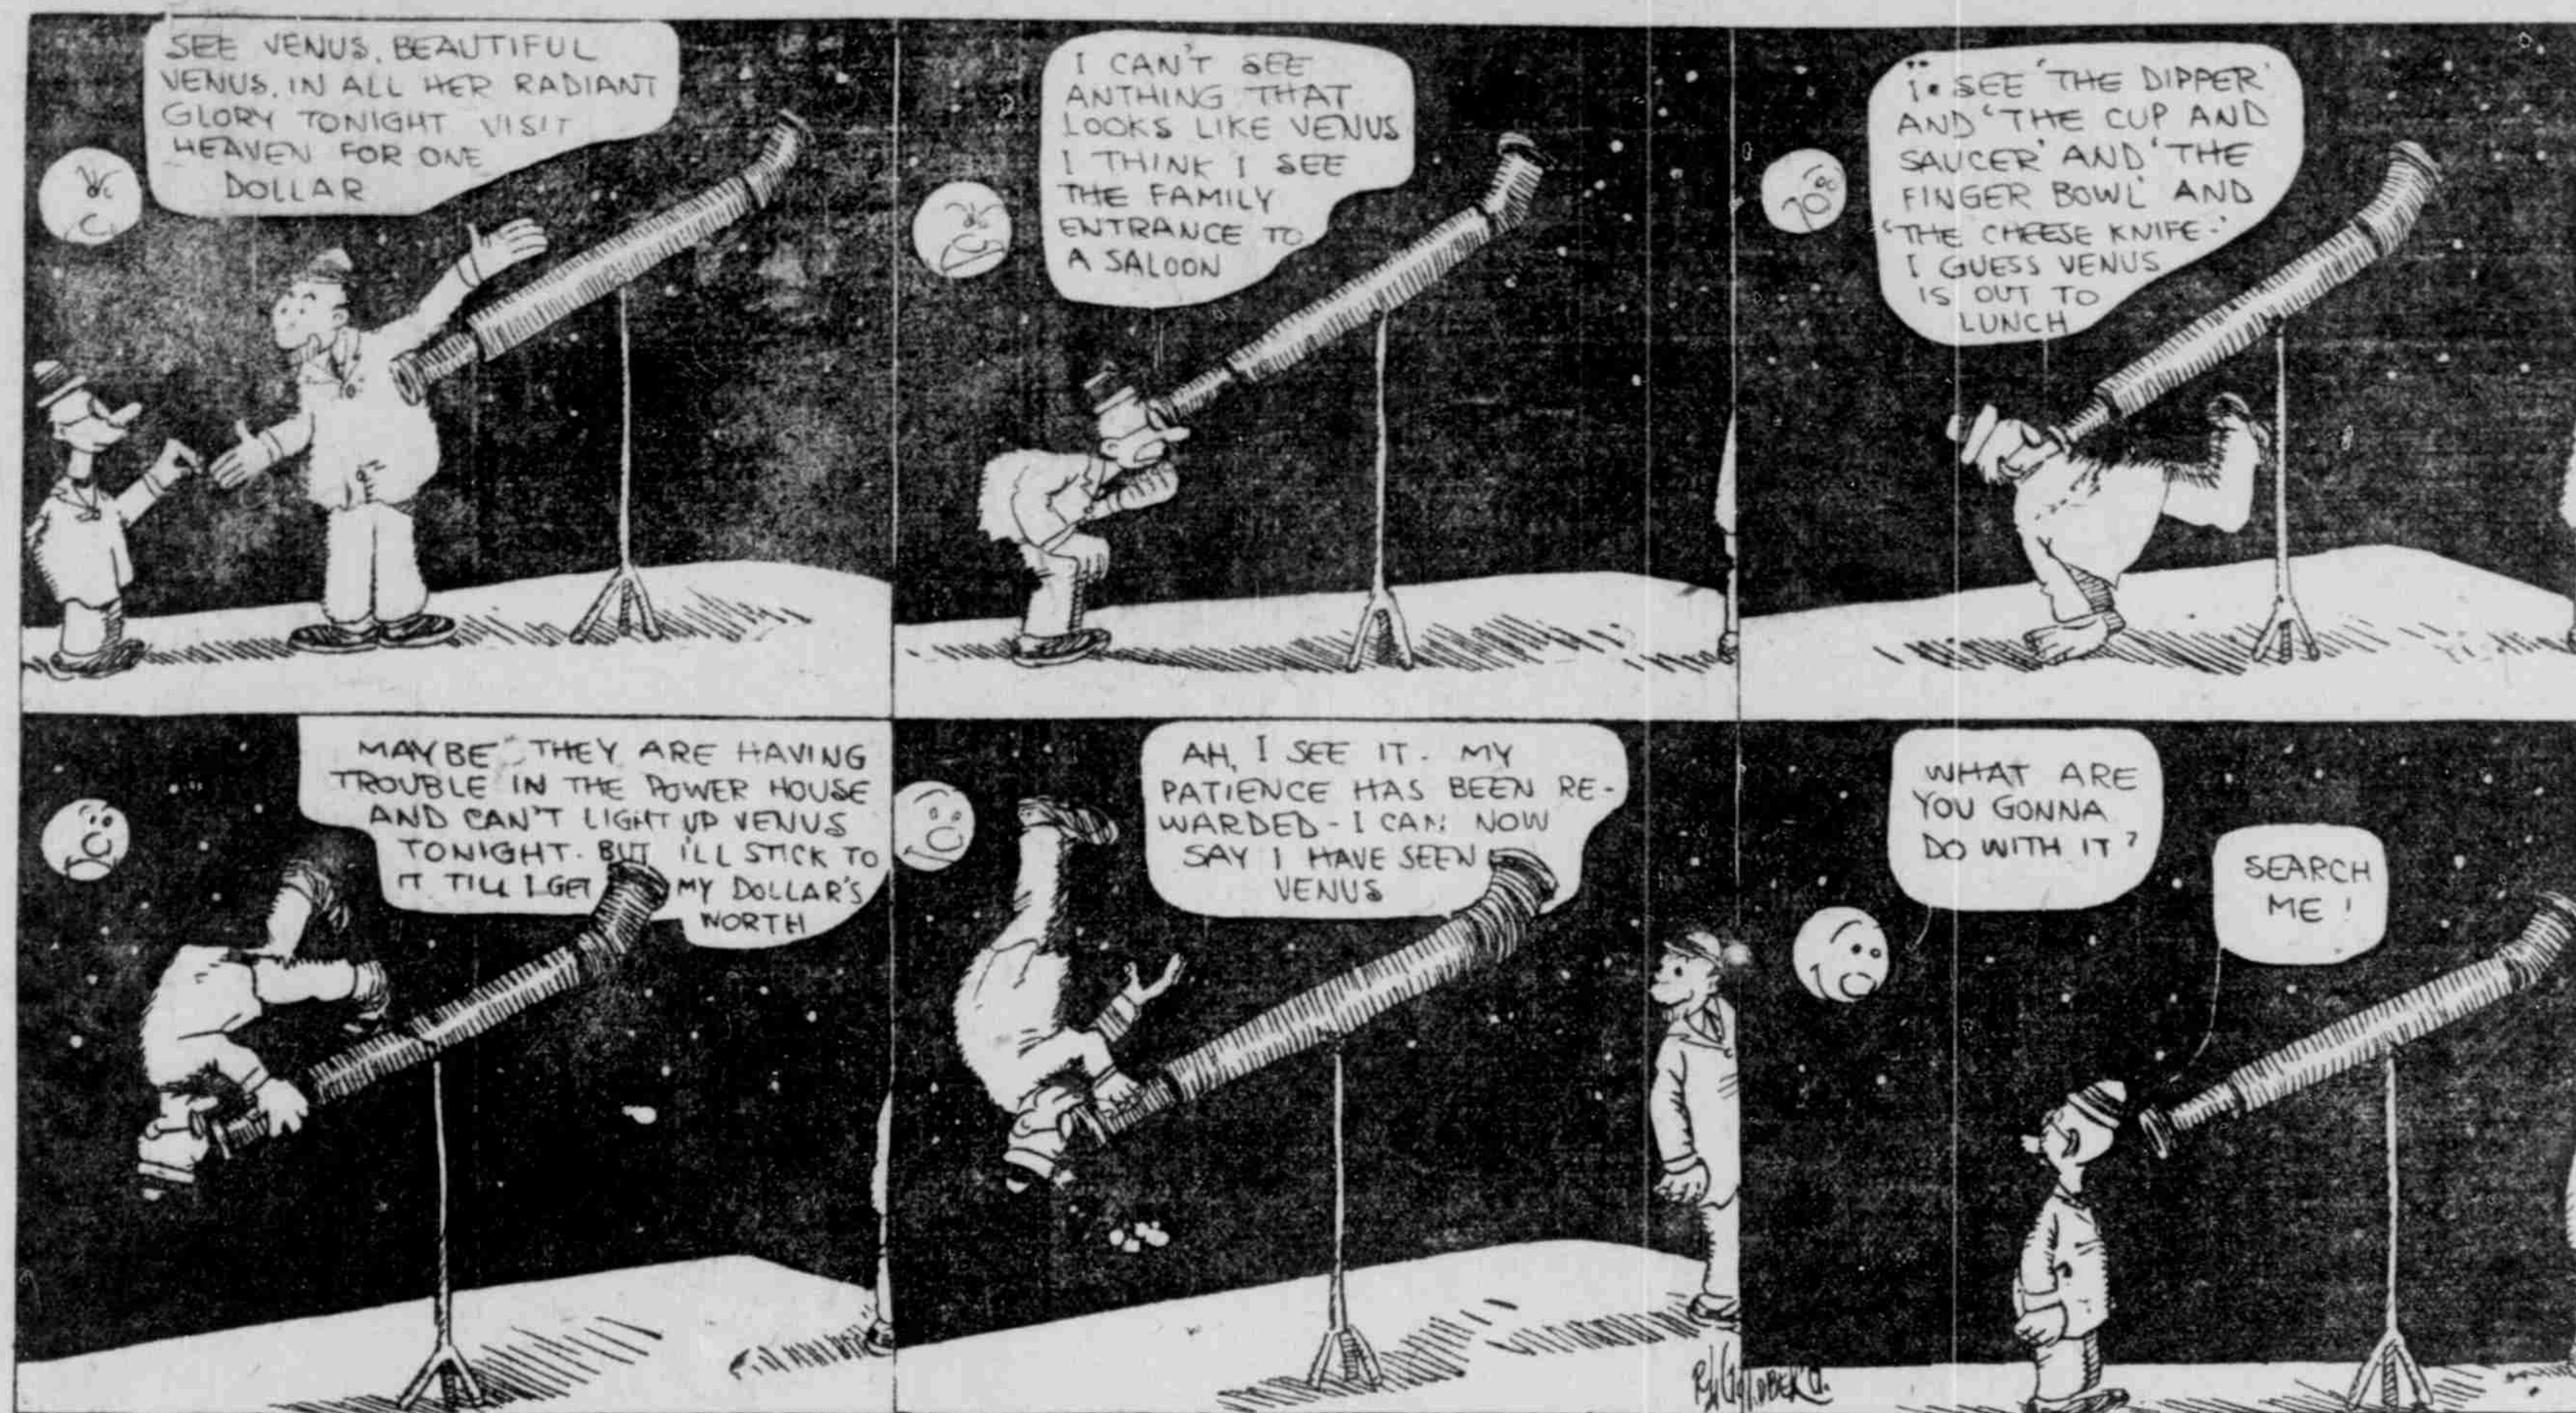

Poor fielding and light hitting by South Bend high made the tan and blue easy victims for Corby Hall, yesterday, in an eight inning game to a tilt. Errors at critical times gave Corby several of their runs, while the high school failed to connect with the ball with men on bases. "Denz" Jones on the hill for Corby, pitched good ball. The varsity football captain whiffed 11 men and gave the Benders only three scattered hits. Whiteman hurled a good game for the tan and blue but errors behind him kept him continually in hot water. Corby bunched three hits on Whiteman in the fourth, but the Braves counted only one run, for Wolf pulled a neat double play unassisted with the bases loaded.

The tan and blue started things in the first session by getting two on bases. After Bondurant fouled out, Wolf drew a pass and stole second. Hagerty fanned, but Allen singled to center, sending Wolf to third. Whiteman popped to Jones to finish the inning. In Corby's half of the first Cahill singled through the box, stole second and tallied on R. Grimes' bingle to left. Grimes counted to second on the throw in. Fitzgerald was safe at first on an error, but a moment later Grimes was run down between third and home.

The Benders blew up in the third and poor fielding, combined with two hits gave Corby three runs after Cahill had fanned. R. Grimes reached first on Allen's error. Fitzgerald fanned, but Maher singled to left. Daly popped a high fly to Anderson, who let it set away, and when Whiteman made a bad peg home Grimes and Maher trotted in. Daly counted on L. Grimes' double to left. Corby tallied again the next frame. Jones hit through the box. Von Thron hit to right. Corcoran lifted a high fly which Anderson dropped in short center, but he pegged Jones out at third. Grimes hit, filling the bases. Allen's error allowed Fitzgerald to reach first and Von Thron home. Wolf then cut off further chances of scoring by nailing Maher's short clout over the pitcher and touching second.

In the sixth Von Thron forced Jones, who had gotten to first on an error. Von Thron then stole second and third and came home when Allen let Cottrell's peg get by him to left field. The tan and blue got their lone run in the seventh. Whiteman walked. Grimes at second blew Corcoran's throw on Cottrell's grounder, allowing both runners to be safe. Meyers swung at a high ball on his third strike and Whiteman crossed the plate when the ball hit the backstop. Keifer picked Cottrell off third and Anderson and Duball fanned. The game was called in the eighth by agreement.

YANKEES LOSE AGAIN

Dubuc Holds Chancemen to Two Hits and Wins, 3 to 0.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Dubuc's pitching was of the unimpeachable variety Thursday and the Yankees again lost to Detroit, 3 to 1. The lanky Tiger allowed just two hits, one a double. Peckinpaugh was the only Yankee who touched him. Keating pitched a good game for the locals until he "blew" in the eighth. A wild pitch allowed the tying run to come in and then a single and two passes filled the bases. Keating was replaced by Caldwell and Veatch scored in two scores with a single. Hugh Fullerton, Junior, Writes About

"OUR TEAM"

It is Base Running Wins the Games. Hank Slid Like it Said in the Book and Got Stuck With a Pin.

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JUNIOR.
(AGED 9.)

Base running is the best way to win games. That's the way we beat all the kid teams we play. If you run when you get on the bases they throw wild, or some kid muffs it, and then, the next batter hits and you score. We steal bases all the time, except some of the little kids who are afraid of getting put out.
At first we didn't know how to slide, but we learned. I watched the league players slide, and showed the other kids. We all slide feet first, and lots of times the basemen don't touch us even when he gets the ball. Sometimes if you slide and hit his shins he drops the ball.
Once Hank did that, and Walter, who is a great big kid, cried. He hit Hank on the nose and they had a dandy scrap, only Mr. Terpening came along and stopped them. We yelled "cry baby" at Walt at school and he chased us. We read a book about base running, and it said how to run and for the batter to hit when the other fellow is stealing, only we kept getting double played on fly balls, so we don't hit but let the kids steal.
I asked Mr. Al Bridwell if that was right, and he said it was. Besides most of the time the catcher throws wild anyhow.
Mr. Bridwell's sister lives in our town and he comes out to see her. Her kids are dandy players, only they are too big for our team.
We have lots of ball players in our town. Mr. Fred Clark lives here sometimes. His nephew used to live

PITCHING DUEL GOES TO AYER

Scott of White Sox Holds Seniors Hitless Nine Innings—Single and Triple in Tenth Wins Game One to Nothing.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—After holding Washington hitless for nine innings, Jim Scott wobbled in the tenth and lost a gruelling pitchers' duel with Ayers, 1 to 0. Gandil opened the tenth with a single and scored the winning run on Shanks' triple to right field. The Sox did nothing in their half of the round. Scott allowed only two hits and three were all the visitors could garner from Ayers.

GIANTS WIN CLOSE GAME

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 15.—The Giants won a closely fought game from the Pirates, 4 to 3, Thursday. The visitors got a three run lead in the first inning, errors by Kelly and Gibson and a wild pitch by Adams giving the Giants their advantage. The league leaders tied the score in the fourth inning on McCarthy's single. The Giants won out in the fifth when Meyers doubled and scored on a sacrifice fly after advancing a base on Demaree's single.

JS WHITEWASH BOSTON

Benton and Herzog Benched For Umpire Argument.

CINCINNATI, O., May 15.—Boston did not do anything with the pitching of Benton and Davenport and Cincinnati took the second game of the series, 1 to 0. Benton and Herzog were benched in the sixth because of an argument with Umpire Eason. Benton grabbed Collins' bunt and apparently touched him out. Eason called him safe and a near riot followed. Then Benton and Herzog pulled at Eason's coat and a mob of players surrounded the umpire. Benton allowed but three hits in five innings and Davenport, his successor, was found for only one in four rounds. Taylor, for Boston, was ineffective.

Phillies Win Long Struggle From Cardinals, 5-3.

ST. LOUIS, May 15.—The Phillies won a hard fought 15-inning battle from the Cardinals Thursday afternoon, 5 to 3. The run necessary to win was made at the opening of the round when Cravath tripled and scored on Becker's single. Becker was the batting star. He tied up the score in the ninth by driving in two runs with a timely single after two were out. Altogether he drove in four runs and scored the other four.

TAYLORS OUT OF BASEBALL

BOSTON, Mass., May 15.—The Taylors are now out of baseball and Jos. Lannon now controls the Boston Red Sox, having purchased the Taylors half of the club's stock in addition to the half interest which he has held since last December.
It is known that General Taylor has long been desirous of limiting his investment, while John L. Taylor is well satisfied with the price obtained for the club.
President Ban Johnson of the American league has been in town since Wednesday night and the big deal was completed at the Algonquin club and at the offices of General Taylor's attorneys today.

HOOSIERS DROP OPENER TO BAY CITY TRIBE 6-5

Smith's Men Fill Bases in Ninth With One Down, But Are Unable to Score, Three Men Going Out on Fouls.

Three straight safeties, two doubles and a single, which brought in two markers in the seventh started the ascension that resulted in the defeat of the Hoosiers at the hands of the Bay City aggregation at Springbrook park yesterday afternoon, 6-5. The two counties tied the tally at five apiece, and the Beavers pushed across the winning run in the eighth.

The Hoosiers started out as if they would win in a walk. They pulled up three counters in the first and followed with two more in the fourth. But Thomas, weak at the beginning of the mill, gathered strength as he went along, and scattered the Hoosier hits so that a score was impossible. The Beavers retired in order in the first frame. Layden led off for the Hoosiers, with a soft one in the hands of Thomas. Foley singled over second, and scored on Patterson's hot drive over the third sack, which was good for a triple. Arndt scored Patterson with a single to center. Stevenson struck out, and Beall pushed Feathers across the plate for the third marker with a smoky single through first and second. Dobbins popped to short.

Triple Starts Beavers.

The Beavers came back in the second with a score. Harris led off with a long triple to center that went nearly to the fence. He raced across the plate and Blausser pushed a hot drive between third and short. Woody sacrificed and Barry sent a hot single over short that Layden took on first bound. Layden pushed a pretty throw and caught Blausser at the plate. Donnelly went down Foley to Beall.

It was straight time for the Hoosiers in the second and third but in the fourth they pushed across two more. Stevenson started the frame with a slow one to Thomas. Beall followed with a pass, went to third on Dobbins' safe bingle to right, while the latter took second on the throw to third. Both scored when Moore sent a Texas leaguer over second. Smith struck out and Layden fouled out to third.

Two more were annexed by the Beavers in the fifth. Donnelly, the first man up, went down Smith to Beall, and Thomas sent a long fly to Moore. In the sixth two were down. Hartwell was issued a pass took second when Smith bobbed Jenkins' easy grounder. Jenkins went to second when Beall booted Dobbins' throw to center. Combs also walked and Hartwell took third. Combs was issued a pass and Hartwell and Jenkins scored when Harris poked a single to right center. Blausser went out Stevenson to Beall.

There was nothing doing then until the unlucky seventh. Thomas led off with a whiff. Hartwell singled to right and scored with Jenkins doubled to center. Combs also walked the pill for two sacks, scoring Jenkins. Harris went down Arndt to Beall and Blausser dropped an easy one to Smith.

The Hoosiers weakened again in the eighth and allowed the Beavers to put over another counter. Woody started the frame with a hot single over first, was safe at second by Barry and scored on Donnelly's drive through short. The latter tried to score from first on Thomas' short double to right center, but was
